6. GoTEd+ Week

22 – 26 Feb 2027

Teachers together for change

Empowering education for transformation

The GoTEd+ Week is the Winter School of the project Global Teacher Education+ (GoTEd+). It is hosted by the Professional School of Education (PSE), the central institution for teacher education of the University of Würzburg. Every year, we invite lecturers, researchers, students, and teachers to discuss topics of teacher education with guests from our international partner universities.
