2. Transportation in Ljubljana

Ljubljana is a very accessible city in terms of transport. If you plan your trip correctly you should always be able to use public transportation and arrive on time wherever you want to go. Best way to travel in Ljubljana is by public buses. While taxis might be useful in late-nights. Also take in consideration that Ljubljana is a fairly small city, so even walking is a fairly feasible option.

2.1. Buses

LPP area

Most of Ljubljana is covered by busses. The conference venue has only one bus (number 18) going from and to it.

For the map of Ljubljana's bus coverage please visit: <http://www.lpp.si/en/public-transport/map-bus-routes-and-p-r>

For information about bus arrivals please visit: <http://www.lpp.si/en/public-transport/information-bus-arrivals>

Our busses are also Google maps supported which means you can plan your trip from point A to point B using Google maps, and it will tell you which buses to use and where to go.

Simple example: <https://www.google.com/maps/dir/Fakulteta+za+ra%C4%8Dunalni+%C5%A1tvo+in+informatiko,+Slovenia/Hostel+Celica,+Metelkova+ulica,+Ljubljana,+Slovenia/>

URBANA

For busses it is necessary for you to have the Urbana city card. It is a RFID card on which you can deposit money, with which you pay for the bus rides.

You can buy the Urbana card at almost any »Trafika« (newspaper stand), most tourist shops, hostels and many other places.

The cards come in two versions, green and beige; the beige one is a deposit card, while the green one is a monthly card.

For more information please visit this website: <http://www.jhl.si/en/single-city-card-urbana>

Taxis in Ljubljana are fairly cheap and usually fair if you stick to a few common sense rules.

- First rule is only use registered taxis, these are those with a big TAXI sticker on them.
- Second rule is to always call the taxi with your phone to get a cheaper rate.
- Third rule is to avoid expensive looking taxis standing in front of expensive hotels.

Recommended taxi companies:

- METRO 080 11 90 0,89 €/km (the biggest company, phone-line often busy on bad days): <http://www.taximetro.si/>
- RONDO 080 900 900 0,75 €/km (smaller company, answers the phone readily): <http://www.taxi-rondo.si/>

3. Eating and drinking in Ljubljana

3.1. Eating

Ljubljana has a very wide offer of foods. There are lots of nice not so expensive restaurants all over the city, as well as many fast-food options that might be interesting.

Making a full list of good restaurants or places you might want to visit, would be slightly unfair to many other good places.

Most common restaurants are Italian/pizzeria places, so getting some good pizza or other Italian food is very easy in Ljubljana. Besides Italian restaurants there is a fair amount of Chinese restaurants that offer very good Chinese food.

If you enjoy food from far away or not so common places, Trubarjeva street is the way to go. Over the whole length of the street you have restaurants that offer food from Lebanon to Sudan.

3.2. Drinking

That's probably one of the easiest things to do in Ljubljana. Drinks are non-expensive in almost all bars.

Beerlovers

If you love beer extravaganza there are two locations that will suit your taste:

<http://www.godec-pub.com/novice.html> Offers an amazing variety of beers but is slightly away from the centre, with good "rock" atmosphere

<http://www.g-pub.net/> It's in the city centre, near to other dancing and partying places, and it also offers a wide variety of good beers.
