I have really enjoyed the Faculty of Education at the University of Ljubljana, as well as Ljubljana itself. It has been an amazing program that I would highly recommend to every student. The faculty offers excellent academic opportunities, knowledgeable professors, and a supportive learning environment. Moreover, Ljubljana is a beautiful city with a vibrant cultural scene, friendly people, and a great quality of life. I had an incredible experience studying here and would encourage others to consider this university and city for their educational journey.
